- b) Indecent or sexual assault or attempted assault
- c) Hitting, pushing, shoving, spitting, or throwing objects at a person
- d) Unfastening a person's attire

Principles

Access and equity:

ATCWA follows the following principles to maintain equity and integrity thus, it does not accept any form of discrimination takes place within its operational boundaries.

- a) ATCWA abides by access and equity principles.
- b) ATCWA will respect a student's right to privacy, confidentiality and be sensitive to student needs.
- c) ATCWA provides equal opportunity for all learners and is responsive to the individual needs of students whose gender, pregnancy, race, marital status, sexuality, age, family/carer responsibilities, disability, transgender, political conviction, cultural or ethnic background, linguistic background, religious belief, geographic location, socio-economic background, employment/unemployment, imprisonment may present a barrier to access, participation and achievement of suitable outcomes.
- d) At enrolment, students will be asked to identify personal needs or circumstances that may exist and for which they may require additional support.
- e) ATCWA will ensure that all staff, employees, and contractors have access to the information and support needed to prevent discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimization, and vilification or to deal with it appropriately if it occurs.
- f) ATCWA seeks to create a learning environment where all students are respected and can develop their full potential.
- g) All students are given fair and reasonable opportunity to attend and complete training.

- h) All staff are given fair and reasonable opportunity to participate in relevant decision making processes and the allocation of resources and services as required to fulfil their duties and responsibilities.
- i) Deficiencies will be investigated to determine whether a breach or policy deficiency exists. Should a discrepancy be proven, the impact of that breach or deficiency will be identified along with how the policy should be amended to eliminate the breach or deficiency in the future.
- j) All perceived deficiencies in the Access and Equity Policy are to be documented, assessed and reviewed by the Director ATCWA.
- k) ATCWA will demonstrate its commitment by:
  - i. Selecting students according to a fair and non-discriminatory process
  - ii. Making its training relevant for a diverse student population
  - iii. Providing suitable access to facilities and resources
  - iv. Providing appropriate support services
  - v. Providing appropriate complaint and appeal procedures
  - vi. Consulting with relevant industry groups
  - vii. Raising staff, contractor and student awareness of equity issues.

Equal Opportunity:

ATCWA is an equal opportunity workplace so it does not discriminate against or favour target groups in either recruiting or training, unless prescribed by funding contracts.

Target Groups are defined as:

- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islanders;
- People with a disability;
- People from non-English speaking backgrounds;
- People in transition and other special groups (i.e. people re-entering the workforce, long term unemployed, sole parents, people with literacy problems, and those who have been institutionalised);
- Women;
- People from regionally isolated communities.

Special Needs/Considerations:

- a) Students intending to enrol for training with ATCWA are requested prior to enrolment to advise ATCWA if they have any disability, physical or other impairment which may adversely affect their ability to successfully undertake training and assessment.
- b) Students are encouraged to discuss with ATCWA any 'special needs' and/or 'reasonable adjustments' to the study environment which they consider are necessary or would assist them in the performance of their studies.
- c) ATCWA, in collaboration with the student, will assess the potential for the student to successfully complete the training which may include flexible delivery options to optimise the ease and benefit of the students' learning. However, no compromise to the integrity of the assessment against competency will be allowed.
- d) Students with a disability are required to have the ability to fulfil the core requirements of the units of Competence to attain the relevant award. However, it is recognised that flexibility in arrangements may need to be implemented.

Language, Literacy and Numeracy:

- a) Each Training Package sets a minimum requirement in language, literacy and numeracy skills of learners, with which ATCWA must abide.
- b) ATCWA makes appropriate concessions for language, literacy and numeracy issues of students where these concessions do not compromise the requirements of the relevant Training Package and the integrity, equity and fairness of assessment.
- c) Where a student is deemed, either prior to enrolment or throughout the training program, to possess a lower level of language, literacy or numeracy than is the minimum requirement for the requirements of the Training Package, ATCWA will provide appropriate advice and support to the student regarding further learning options. At times, further language or literacy development or remedial assistance may be required to be completed prior to the continuation or completion of the student's course of study.

Harassment:

- a) Harassment will not be tolerated at ATCWA. If harassment occurs, the person responsible will be subject to disciplinary procedures. Disciplinary action will be taken against any staff or student involved in such behaviour. This may include termination of employment and removal of the student from the training course.
- b) Serious cases of harassment may constitute a criminal offence.

- c) ATCWA will not tolerate behaviour which is considered to be sexual harassment and expects all staff, contractors and students to treat each other with dignity and respect.

Bullying and Violence:

- a) ATCWA will not tolerate bullying or violent behaviour and expects all staff, contractors and students to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- b) ATCWA recognises bullying and violence demeans and infringes the rights of individuals and groups, damaging the work and learning environment.

Vilification:

- a) ATCWA will not tolerate behaviour which vilifies another person and expects all staff, contractors and students to treat each other with dignity and respect.

Complaints and Appeals:

- a) ATCWA encourages informal resolutions of discrimination, sexual harassment, bullying and violence, victimisation, and vilification grievances in the first instance, as close to the source as possible, with the option of conciliation or investigation of the complaint if necessary.
- b) Complaints and Appeals will be investigated in a confidential manner and action will be taken to ensure that the discrimination/harassment stops. Appropriate warning or disciplinary action will be taken where harassment is found to have occurred.
- c) Those responsible for advising, conciliating or investigating a complaint must act fairly and impartially, they must act without bias and avoid any conflict of interest, the respondent must be given a fair opportunity to know the case against him or her and to be given the opportunity to make a considered response.
- d) All staff, students and contractors involved with the ATCWA complaint and appeal procedures will be treated with respect and courtesy. Enquiries, complaints and appeals will be dealt with in a sensitive, equitable, fair, and confidential manner. All attempts will be made to deal with matters expeditiously while ensuring all parties are provided with sufficient time to prepare and or respond.
- e) ATCWA acknowledges that it is of paramount importance and in the best interests of all parties that confidentiality is maintained during these procedures.
- f) ATCWA encourages the reporting of behaviour that breaches equal opportunity policy, but will not tolerate vexatious or frivolous complaints.

Victimisation:

- a) In order for complaints to be brought forward, complainants must feel secure in the knowledge that the ATCWA procedures will be followed without fear of reprisal.
- b) ATCWA will not victimise or treat any person unfairly for making a harassment complaint.
- c) ATCWA will not tolerate behaviour of victimisation of another person and expects all staff, contractors and students to treat each other with dignity and respect.
- d) Any complaint of victimisation will be treated in the same manner as a complaint of discrimination, sexual harassment or vilification.

ATCWA Responsibilities

ATCWA has legal and moral obligation to provide equal opportunity in an environment free from discrimination for staff, contractors and students to ensure that discrimination/harassment does not occur in the workplace. Therefore, ATCWA has a system in place to;

- Maintain policies and procedures for equal opportunities for all staff, contractors and students;
- Disseminate policies and procedures to staff, contractors and students;
- Examine all policies and practices, as they affect staff, contractors and students to ensure the elimination of discrimination and harassment;
- Ensure that there is no discrimination against any individual student or group of students or staff, in access to facilities, products and services;
- Educate staff and contractors on the general goals and philosophy of equal opportunity together with the rationale for policies and practices which are adopted;
- Eliminate sexist and other discriminator language from all publications and discourage the use of such language in all printed material and in the speech of its staff, contractors and students;
- Establish and maintain mechanisms to deal with complaints.

CEO/DOO Responsibilities

ATCWA Director of Operations (DOO), Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and other executives are responsible for student, staff, visitors and contractors equity.

ATCWA DOO, CEO and relevant Managers will not condone nor engage in discriminatory/harassing behaviour. ATCWA DOO, CEO and relevant Managers is responsible for ensuring that all staff are aware of this policy and that complaints and appeals will be dealt with in accordance with the terms of the Complaints and Appeals Policy.

ATWCA DOO, CEO and relevant Managers are to ensure staff act according to this policy and all students are made aware of their rights and responsibilities pursuant to this policy. ATCWA DOO, CEO and relevant Managers will maintain the confidentiality of all complaints. If The DOO, CEO or assigned Manager feels that they are not the appropriate person to deal with the complaint, they will refer the matter to either a member of the management team or an external independent party for review and/or action.

Staff, Contractors and Students Responsibilities:

ATCWA staff, contractors and students are responsible to:

- Act to prevent harassment, discrimination and victimisation against others;
- Respect differences among other staff, students and contractors, such as cultural and social diversity;
- Treat people fairly, without discrimination, harassment or victimisation;
- Respect the rights of others;
- Respect people's rights to privacy and confidentiality;
- Refuse to join in with these behaviours;
- Supporting the person in saying no to these behaviours;
- Acting as a witness if the person being harassed decides to lodge a complaint;
- Observe site rules or behaviour guidelines set by ATCWA Trainers/Assessors;
- Behave in a manner that does not interfere with the learning of others; and
- Conduct themselves in a responsible manner while in training;
- Ensure the rights of all students to have their say, balanced with the responsibility to listen to others and allow others to have their say.

If a staff member of ATCWA, contractor or student feels harassed, bullied or otherwise a victim of unwelcome behaviour, the staff, contractor or student is encouraged to inform the person where the behaviour is unwanted, unacceptable and/or offensive. If the staff, contractor or student feels unable to approach the person, or if the behaviour continues following their request that the behaviour cease, the DOO or CEO of ATCWA should be contacted.
